Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : William M. Rountree

DATE: October 2, 1957

FROM : Stuart W. Rockwell

SUBJECT: Crown Prince Faisal's Stay in the U.S.

Our latest information indicates that Crown Prince Faisal may extend his stay in the U.S. into November. He is reportedly taking a more active interest in UN affairs and has received several members of Arab UN delegations including Fawzi of Egypt.

For your information, Faisal's delay in leaving the U.S. will raise a number of problems in connection with Queen Elizabeth's visit beginning October 16. Protocol is concerned because Faisal and his entourage are occupying the Waldorf Astoria suite reserved for Queen Elizabeth and her party. Queen Elizabeth's visit will also make heavy demands on the Office of Security and will make it difficult for them to continue their present activity with the Crown Prince and his party.
